CRR No.1699 of 2006
Dt. Of Decision.5.09.2006.

Randhir Singh ...Petitioner

Versus

Ajit Singh ...Respondent

CORAM HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AJAI LAMBA

PRESENT: Mr. K. S. Hissowal, Advocate for the petitioner.

AJAI LAMBA, J (ORAL)

This is a criminal revision petition directed against the concurrent finding of fact. The petitioner was convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act and has been sentenced to one year imprisonment and fine Rs.2,000/-, in default to pay fine, further rigorous imprisonment for 15 days. On filing appeal, the judgment of conviction and order of sentence has been confirmed. The only stand taken by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the entire amount had been paid in the presence of Ranjit Singh son of Badan singh. Affidavit of Ranjit Singh has been appended with the revision petition as Annexure P1 to contend that the matter be remitted back for re-opening of the evidence and allowing an opportunity to the petitioner to examine Ranjit Singh as a witness by way of a de-novo trial.

I do not find any ground to show indulgence. The petitioner had the opportunity of leading evidence, however, only one witness was produced namely Avtar Singh.

Finding no ground, this petition is dismissed.
